From the Pastor ...

Dear Members and Friends of Old Saratoga,

Greetings in the love and peace of Christ!

With summer officially here, I've been thinking about how to be more attentive to the presence of God by paying closer attention to all God has given us in creation.

I think of those wonderful verses in Job 12:7-8 where it is written "...speak to the earth and it shall teach thee...." And these lines of an old hymn: "This is my Father's world: he shines in all that's fair; in the rustling grass, I hear him pass, he speaks to me everywhere."

Over the past four weeks, members of the local clergy group watched a four-part DVD series about how to deepen consciousness about the realities of the spiritual world. The series, by Father Richard Rohr was entitled "The Change That Changes Everything." In one of the segments, Fr. Rohr quoted a woman named May Sarton. She is one of my favorite authors, and I have twice read one of her books, Journal of a Solitude, from which Fr. Rohr quoted.

As Sarton was recalling a quote by another author, Simone Weil "Absolute attention is prayer," she wrote: "..the more I have thought about this over the years, the truer it is for me...if one looks long enough at almost anything, looks with absolute attention at a flower, a stone, the bark of a tree, grass, snow, a cloud, something like revelation takes place. Something is "given", and perhaps that something is always a reality outside the self. We are aware of God only when we cease to be aware of ourselves, not in the negative sense of denying the self, but in the sense of losing self in admiration and joy."

When was the last time you "lost yourself" in admiration and joy?

One of my favorite spiritual/nature writers is Thomas Merton, whose life a few of us learned about two years ago during our "4 Weeks in Lent" program. Father Merton devoted his life to being attentive to God through creation. In his forest hermitage at the Abbey of Gethsemani (KY), Merton wrote how he "sat in stillness and loved the wind in the forest and listened for a good long while to God."

It seems that we human beings, need desperately in our time to walk away from our books, our words, our computers, our TV's, our smart phones and tablets, to embrace, and to be embraced by God in nature. Go outside and listen to the earth speak. Climb a mountain. Walk beside a river. Look at a flower. Be attentive to God who is in in all things and waiting for us to come—waiting to give us love and mercy, teach us wisdom about life and living—and help us find healing and peace.

Faithfully yours,

Pastor Joyce deVelder

JASON AND MAGGIE WHITE TO VISIT OSRC AUG. 14

On Sunday, August 14, Old Saratoga will have the pleasure of welcoming Jason and Maggie White, who will share details of their upcoming year-long mission trip to Romania with us.

Jason, who graduated from Western Theological Seminary in May, will be ordained by the Classis of Schenectady on Aug. 7, so we will be welcoming him on 8/14 as "the Rev. Jason White." (Maggie is the daughter of the Rev. Kent and Jill Busman.) They are planning to go to Romania in September to begin a year of work there through the Reformed Church in America. Here, in Jason's words, is a statement about the mission work they will be doing: "We will be working most of the year in Targu Mures in an in-residence youth home. Most of the youth are abandoned, orphaned, or from unstable home environments; our job will be to help them with life skills, guidance, and to give them a stable, caring environment. Then, during the summer, we'll be off to work at a summer camp – a Romanian version of Camp Fowler."

While Jason and Maggie receive some funding from the RCA for the trip, they are required to raise as much funding as possible themselves. We are planning to have a special offering to help them in this special endeavor. The consistory hopes that people will come to meet Jason and Maggie on Sun. Aug. 14, and give generously to help this young couple fulfill their desire to share the good news of God's love in Romania.

Can't be there? Checks can be sent to the office (48 Pearl Street, Schuylerville, NY 12871, made out to OSRC, earmarked "Romania." Thanks!

2016 JAMAICA MISSION

We received news from Bonnie Manes (from our partner church (First Presbyterian in Oneonta) that there WILL be a mission trip to Pringle Home this summer! (June 29-July 6) While we're disappointed that OSRC did not have mission travelers to send this year, we are grateful to financially support the projects which the team will work on to benefit Pringle Home and its young residents. (This year's work project involves building and repairing closets and cupboards.) We thank everyone for the continued donations of deposit bottles and cans, purchase of cheesecake made by Henrietta Edgar, and your donations! As Bonnie Manes wrote, "Thank you for all your efforts with this endeavor. I know you're disappointed, but we will look forward to 2017 with renewed expectations!"

The Property Committee members especially thank Doug Sheely for his excellent craftsmanship, and for being so agreeable to all the requests beyond the original scope of the project; Karl Thayer for getting the grab bars and baby changing station ordered through his work; Buck Bounds for making a new frame for the mirror; Bill Whitehouse for painting the new bathroom cabinet; Cindy Brockman for doing finish painting; the anonymous donor for donating the cost of the baby changing station; and the consistory and congregation for their support of the renovation project.

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

The General Synod of the Reformed Church in America met in June near Chicago, Illinois. One of the major issues dealt with the report and recommendation of the Special Council, which met in April, regarding the question of human sexuality as it relates to marriage and ordination. The council was charged to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit for a constitutional way forward which could help bring peace in the midst of a contentious and divisive debate in the church.

The recommendations that were, in the end, approved were (as anticipated) satisfying to many and disappointing to many. If you would like to read more about the General Synod meeting and the recommended amendment to our constitution, that will go to the classes for approval, and for possible ratification at the 2017 General Synod, please visit www.rca.org

At its June meeting, the consistory decided to accept the invitation of the Turning Point Parade Committee to participate this year, as it's been several years since we have participated.

Plans are to refresh the replica of our church (built many years ago by Howard Hayes and stored in Ruth Hayes's garage,) place it on a trailer and pull it in the parade! There will be signs, and a banner to carry. We'll be looking for volunteers to walk alongside the little church! (All participants will need to be at the Schuylerville School parking lot by 12 noon.)

We thank our Parade Committee (Paula Sheely, Amber Deyoe and Anne Mitchell) for their willingness to help! If you would like to get involved, please let them know.

A PRAYER FOR THE WORLD

Let the rain come and wash away the ancient grudges, the bitter hatreds held and nurtured over generations.

Let the rain wash away the memory of the hurt,
the neglect.

Then let the sun come out and fill the sky with rainbows.

Let the warmth of the sun heal us
wherever we are broken.

Let it burn away the fog so that we can see each other clearly.

So that we can see beyond labels,
beyond accents, gender or skin color.

Let the warmth and brightness of the sun
melt our selfishness.

So that we can share the joys and feel the sorrows of our neighbors.

And let the light of the sun be so strong that we will see all people as our neighbors.

Let the earth, nourished by rain,
bring forth flowers to surround us with beauty.

And let the mountains teach our hearts
to reach upward to heaven. Amen.

Rabbi Harold S. Kushner
