NEW WEB SITE ADDRESS

Thanks to our church "webmaster" we have a new web site address, which is connected to the RCA. Pat Woomer, after researching some options for a domain, has found that the most economical method for us was to join the with the RCA. If you wish to visit our new site the address is now:

www.old-saratoga.rcachurches.org

We have also been connected to a Google Calendar, which may be helpful to you if you need some quick information about the date and time of a meeting or event.

Pat has been working on updating some categories which the website committee thought best reflected what would give the most valuable information about the church and its programs. Please check out the site, and thank Pat for what he has been able to accomplish so far!

HYMN OF THE MONTH

"Sing to the Lord, you saint of his; praise his holy name. (Psalm 30: 4)

*"Forth In Your Name, O Lord I Go
My daily labor to pursue;
You, Lord, alone I choose to know
In all I think or speak or do."*

Charles Wesley's hymn "Forth In Your Name, O Lord, I Go" was originally entitled "For Believers Before Work." Wesley knew quite well that Christians have to be a part of society. The labors that we perform are done in part to please our employers, but, our worship and our daily tasks must both be done as unto the Lord. The hymn reinforces the notion that all believers are missionaries, regardless of their vocation. Austin Lovelace, a noted church musician, has commented, "Most hymns stick to Sunday. Charles Wesley sang about weekdays as well."

At the start of the month of September, Americans celebrate Labor Day. We honor the service and productivity of our fellow countrymen, and as recipients of all that God has provided, give thanks to God for the blessings of labor. As with so many other celebrations, we need to recognize and live in the spirit of these blessings every day of the year.

Two of the other five stanzas of this hymn effectively convey the intent of Wesley's message.

*"The task your wisdom has assigned
Here let me cheerfully fulfill;
In all my work your presence find
And prove your good and perfect will.*

*You would I set at my right hand
Whose eyes my inmost secrets view:
And Labor on your command
And offer all my work to you."*

They will be in Northampton, MA on Monday night to celebrate the October birthdays of sons Mikael and Nathaniel. (This time away was originally scheduled for late August but the death in the family made it necessary to go back to Michigan at that time.) For pastoral needs while Pastor Joyce is away, please contact Elder Vice-President Paula Sheely or the church office. Prayer chain requests can be given to Chris Garney, Florence Sherman or the church office.

CAMP FOWLER SUNDAY – Oct. 19

The Board of Deacons has designated October 19 as Camp Fowler Sunday! We are happy that first-time campers to Fowler, Ajay and Holly Deyoe, are going to share some of their experiences at camp with the whole church family during All God's Children!

We're glad to note that Ajay and Holly both want to go back to Fowler next summer – and that we have several other youth who are thinking of going! In spring, we will have a better idea of how many youth are planning to go to Fowler and will be collecting donations for camperships!

In addition to hearing from Ajay and Holly on Oct. 19, we are planning a special offering for the Fowler Camp and Conference Center. The money which we will collect will help Fowler with its operating expenses.

We ask everyone to give whatever you can to help us meet our mission goal of at least $200. All the churches of our synod are asked to support Fowler financially. Some can do more, some less, but for all of us, Fowler is a special place- especially for our youth, whose faith-forming experiences and memories of camp last a lifetime.

The Camp Fowler Offering Box (a miniature log cabin with a slot in the roof) will be on the back table in the sanctuary for people to place their gifts. For those who would like to help, but can't be present on Oct. 19, you may send your donation to the church. Checks should be made payable to Old Saratoga Reformed Church and earmarked "Fowler Offering."

We thank everyone for helping us to meet our goal – and most importantly for helping Camp Fowler to continue to be the special place it is!

THIRD QUARTER FINANCIAL UPDATE

As the third quarter of 2014 comes to a close, we have paid all of our bills. We did not have to cash in any more of our investment income this quarter although we did use some of the Bauer fund for a capital gains project. The response to our summer letter of appeal ($1285) was down from previous years but we remain grateful for all gifts. Our garage sale and chicken and biscuit dinner were both successful. We continue to strive not just to survive, but to share God's love both near and far. As always, thank you for the financial support and the prayers which help us continue to serve God.
Christine Garney, Treasurer

From the Pastor...

Dear Members and Friends of Old Saratoga,

Greetings to you and your families in God's grace and peace!

We're in the midst of Autumn—and also in the midst of some very busy months at church—and some very troublesome times in the world. With all that's going on—in and around us—it's easy to “breeze” through autumn without fully savoring its beauty or listening for its lessons.

Autumn is by far my favorite season of the year. Everyday I walk by the lovely lavender asters in full bloom around the church and parsonage yard. The leaves of the maples and yellow poplar are just beginning to turn color. Falling leaves descend as the wind swirls them gently down. Already the grass is partly covered with shades of gold and orange. Pumpkins and cornstalks are everywhere--and fresh apples—which remind me of the apple-picking, cider-making seasons of my childhood growing up in a western-Michigan orchard.

My biggest “fear” during Autumn, is that it will all go by too quickly, and for lack of time, I won't see the subtle changes from day to day, or I'll miss taking that extra walk in the woods, or another drive through the beautiful country back-roads, or just pause for a moment to feel the warmth of the sun when the air is chill.

For me one of the lessons of Autumn—a season like life itself that comes and goes too quickly-- is to appreciate the time and the moment of great color and beauty, the preparation for renewal, before we have to bid it all farewell.

One of my favorite poets, May Sarton, writes, “ I think of the trees and how simply they let go, let fall the riches of a season, how without grief (it seems), they can let go and go deep into their roots for renewal and sleep...”

“Letting go” as trees do with their leaves, in order that they can “go deep into their roots for renewal...” is another spiritual lesson of Autumn. People, like trees, need to “let go” of things that require a constant drain of energy, and rest in the renewal and peace the Great Creator provides.

I know there are those who don't like the fall so much because it reminds them of winter coming. And winters here can be frightful, long, and isolating. But all the more reason to learn from nature that there is a purpose for rest and renewal during the long winter months—even though it's not always pleasant, convenient or perceptible.

So it is with life—and death—and living day by day through all the changing seasons of our lives. And as those seasons come and go, God is ever whispering to our hearts, “See! I am making all things new!” (Revelation 21:5)

Faithfully yours,

JACOB'S WELL
