FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Members and Friends of Old Saratoga,

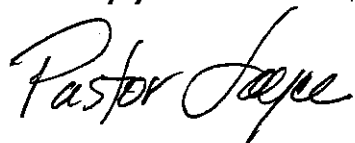

David, Mikael and I want to thank many of you for your thoughts, prayers, hugs, cards and e-mails which were a great comfort to us during our recent family bereavement. Early Sunday morning, August 24, my sister Patti in Michigan called with the sad news that her husband (our brother-in-law) Steve Allen, 61, died at home following an unexpectedly rough week. Many of you had been praying for Steve and Patti and their family over the past year and a half, since Steve was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in March, 2013. He had been on Hospice care for only a few weeks before he died.

Steve's death came just before we were planning to head off to Rhode Island for our last week of summer camping. We were able to change plans quickly and drive to Michigan for the second time this summer to be with our family, though this visit was marked with deep sadness.

The love, care and compassion you showed us that Sunday morning when we told about Steve's death, and the need to change plans, was palpable and strengthening. As in other times, your loving-kindness reaffirms to us that the Spirit of Love is present, and that the church is truly the Body of Christ when we help "bear one another's burdens." (Galatians 6:2)

Thank you all for your continuing prayers, love and encouragement.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

ADDENDUM TO PEOPLE YOU KNOW

On Tuesday, Sept. 9, we had a pleasant visit from Rev. Robert (Bob) and Lucille Hoeksma who were happy to come into the parsonage and see the inside of the church. Bob's father, Rev. Martin Hoeksma, was the pastor of Old Saratoga Reformed Church from 1945-1953. Bob, who was a teenager at the time, and graduate of Schuylerville High School, shared some happy memories of life here. Though he "officially" retired from ministry in the Reformed Church 16 years ago, Bob and Lucille, who live north of Philadelphia, PA, continue to live a very active life. We thank them (and Bob's sister Lois) for delivering some old photos of the church and its people, which will be placed in our archives.

In honor of his birthday, his wife Jean treated Wally to a two-week trip to Germany, accompanied by Jean, and by Wally's son, Kevin, his wife Renee, and their twelve year old daughter – Wally's beloved granddaughter-Olivia. Germany is Wally's home country, where he still has family and many memories. Congratulations to Shirley Hoodack who was guest of honor at a surprise party on Sat, Aug 16 at Embury Apts. in Saratoga where she lives. Her son, John and his wife, Joan, came from Ohio to visit earlier in the summer, accompanied by their daughter and her husband and three children (Pauline's great-grandchildren!) Later in August, another of Pauline's granddaughters, Lauren Bradley, was home from Europe and came to see Pauline. Lauren, who has been working in Belgium as an office manager specialist for the US Embassy, is being relocated to Romania.

SYMPATHY

The congregation extends sympathy and prayers to the following church families who lost loved ones during the summer:

Richard E. (Dick) Jacobson, 82, of Schuylerville, died at the Wesley Health care Center in Saratoga Springs on July 4, 2014, following a month's stay in Saratoga Hospital. Dick spent his life as an educator and school administrator. He served as Superintendent of the Schuylerville Central School District from 1977-87. He had a love for singing, and used his beautiful tenor voice to sing as a soloist with church and community choirs. He (and his wife Margaret) were very active in the Schuylerville Community Theater and sang in several of its musical productions. Dick, who recently became a member of Old Saratoga Reformed Church in May, 2014, had sung in the church choir for the past four years. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Margaret (Eckert) Jacobson, and their two children: Glenn Jacobson and his wife Colleen, and Gail (Jacobson) Emich and her husband Rob, and a grandson, Kyle Emich and his wife Li from New York City. Dick's memorial service was held on July 11 at Old Saratoga. Interment followed at the Gerald B.H. Solomon Saratoga National Cemetery.

Kim and Karl Thayer's sister-in-law, Paula Makuch, 53, died unexpectedly in a hospital in Malaysia on July 21. She had traveled there to help her brother who had been in a serious motorcycle accident. With the help and kindness of many, funds were raised to have her body flown back to the states. Her funeral service was held in Lowville, NY on Sat. Aug. 9.

Joyce (Mulbury) Tanton, 91, mother of Julia Falvo, died in Plattsburgh on Sunday, July 27, following a brief illness. All her family was with her at the CVPH Medical Center when she died. Joyce was a long-time member of the Lynnwood Reformed Church in Guilderland, where she used to live. She baked bread for communion for many years. She was a beloved mother of four children, and had nine granddaughters (including Julia and John's daughters Sarah, Nicole and Lisa Falvo) and five great-grandchildren. Her funeral service was held on July 31 at the Lynwood Reformed Church.

Marion Ludden, 81, died on July 29 in the Willow Point Nursing Home in Binghamton, following a long time of illness caused by a stroke several years ago. Marion is the mother of four children, including Doug Mitchell (and Anne (Behrens) Mitchell) and grandmother to 9, including McKenzie and Kyler Mitchell and Bridget Behrens. She was known for her love of singing and fine arts painting. Marion was originally from the Canadian Province of Saskatchewan. Her funeral service was held on Aug. 1 in the Union Presbyterian Church, Endicott, NY.

Malcolm L. Wells, 88, died on Sept. 3 in Glens Falls at the home of his daughter, where he was under Hospice care. Malcolm was the brother of Clyde (and his wife Jean) Wells. A funeral service was held at Flynn Bros. in Schuylerville on Sept. 6.

Elizabeth (Betty) Lockwood died on Sept. 9 at Saratoga Hospital. Her loss will be grieved by her granddaughter Katrina (and her husband Hank) Harrington and great-granddaughter to Makenzie Harrington.

NEW BABY

Congratulations to Emma Batholomay and Devin Nazarenko on the birth of their son, Maxwell Quincy Nazarenko, who arrived on Aug. 18 at 2:51 pm. He weighed 5lbs 14 oz. His grandparents are Kathleen and Donald Bartholomay and John and Jackie Nazarenko. Also celebrating Max's arrival are his great-grandmother, Betty Bogart, and his Aunt Zoe (who lives and works in NYC.)

HYMN OF THE MONTH

"Sing to the Lord, you saint of his; praise his holy name. (Psalm 30: 4)

"Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life"

*"Where cross the crowded ways of life,
Where sound the cries of race and clan,
Above the noise of selfish strife
We hear your voice, O Son of Man!"*

In the early twentieth century, Frank M. North was challenged by an editor of hymnals to write a hymn text on city missions. The Methodist Church had come to the realization that missions were not only foreign, but that a message of life and hope was needed in our domestic urban environments. Frank North was not a hymn writer, but had vast knowledge of the challenges of urban life in his work for the Methodist Church in New York City. The hymn was inspired by Jesus' words found in Matthew 22:9: "Go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find." The text focuses on the ills of our great urban centers, the "melting pots" with many thousands living in squalid conditions, almost hopelessly struggling against the "lures of greed" and the "noise of strife."

The hymn is as applicable today as it was in 1905. Although our society has gone a long way to clean up many of the slum conditions of the early twentieth century, more folks that ever live in urban areas where greed, disparity in wealth, and crime are very much a part of every day life. The message of Matthew 11:28- "Come unto me, all you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest" needs to be heard.

As I think upon the message of this hymn, I find that it applies to all of us, regardless of our living environment. The challenges of life in a modern society "crowd" the streets of our minds and spirits. The challenges of our vocations, avocations, tending to and supporting family, the need to remain current on national and world affairs, and the time absorbed in tending to social media compete, and often leave little time for evangelism and the need for spiritual nourishment. The spiritual challenge to believers and the church remain as found in verse 4 of North's hymn:

*"Till all the world shall learn God's love
And follow where God's feet have trod;
Till glorious from God's throne above
Shall come the city of our God."*

NEW WEB SITE ADDRESS

Thanks to our church "webmaster" we have a new web site address, which is connected to the RCA. Pat Woome, after researching some options for a domain, has found that the most economical method for us was to join the with the RCA. If you wish to visit our new site the address is now:

www.old-saratoga.rcachurches.org

We have also been connected to a Google Calendar, which may be helpful to you if you need some quick information about the date and time of a meeting or event.

Pat has been working on updating some categories which the website committee thought best reflected what would give the most valuable information about the church and its programs. Please check out the site, and thank Pat for what he has been able to accomplish so far!

LOOKING AHEAD

On Sunday, Oct. 26 (Reformation Sunday) the church will celebrate its heritage with a special service being planned by the Worship Committee. In this service, thanks and tribute will be given to one of our congregation's former pastors from the 1800's, who wrote some great hymns of the church, two of which are in our present hymnbook! We invite you to come and find out more about this special servant of God whose legacy of faith we will honor and celebrate!
