From the Pastor.....

From Pastor Joyce...

"The Lord is good to all,
and his compassion is over all that he has made"

Psalm 145:9

Dear Members and Friends of Old Saratoga,

Greetings to you in the grace and peace of Christ!

A few weeks before Christmas, our church treasurer, Chris Garney, contacted me to set up a meeting date at the church. It was to be a special meeting with Mark Bertrand, who with his wife Kelly, founded the The Giving Circle in 2005. I asked about the purpose of the meeting, but was told it was a surprise and I would have to wait to find out!

After the date of December 19 was set, I contacted Pastor Jenn to invite her to come as well. Around 10 AM, we happily welcomed Mark and his wife Kelly Bertrand (who live in Schuylerville). The five of us sat around the small table outside the church office.

Mark then told us the purpose of the meeting. He and Kelly had brought with them a small black box which contained a gift for the church. He took a lovely (and weighty!) tear-shaped glass object from the box and explained that it was a Compassion Award which The Giving Circle presents every year to groups who have supported the local and/or international work of The Giving Circle in that year.

This was a truly unexpected surprise. We expressed our deep gratitude to Mark and Kelly for their thoughtfulness and spent the next hour learning more about the amazing ongoing work and goals of The Giving Circle. (www.thegivingcircle.org)

At its January meeting, the consistory was grateful to see and "receive" the Compassion Award. We are looking forward to sharing more about it with the congregation during a future Sunday worship service.

This gift is a reminder of the ongoing need for compassion in today's world and all around us. In a book entitled One Heart: Wisdom from the World's Scriptures, it is written that most all the religions of the world agree that "compassion is the sign and proof of real spiritual awakening, and that it is through the richness of compassion that an awakened being demonstrates his or her experience of divine love."

Jesus fully embodied God's unconditional love and compassion. He calls us to a life of compassion "for all that God has made" through our love for others and the creation, being faithful friends, helping those in need, doing good deeds, and trying to feel what others feel. Father Henri Nouwen wrote: "In fellowship with Jesus Christ, we are called to be compassionate as our Father is compassionate. In and through him, it becomes possible to be effective witnesses to God's compassion and to be signs of hope in a despairing world."

Faithfully yours,
Pastor Joyce de Velder

2018 FINANCIAL UPDATE

Thank you to everyone who supported the ministry of Old Saratoga during 2018. God blesses our church with each gift. Donations slightly exceeded our expectations, but we had fewer fund raisers so our total income was down.

Our operating expenses also exceeded our budget particularly for the maintenance of our church and parsonage. We are grateful to the Property Committee for their diligence in making sure we are taking care of our buildings to prevent major repairs in the future.

We pray that God will continue to bless our ministry both locally and through our mission donations and once again thank you for your support through your prayers, gifts, time, and talents.

Respectfully submitted,

Christine Garney, Treasurer

CHRISTMAS APPEAL UPDATE

The Annual Christmas Letter of Appeal went out in December and has been generously supported by the members and friends of Old Saratoga Reformed Church. To date, the gifts have totaled $5195. The consistory is grateful for all gifts, both large and small, which help to continue funding our expenses when attendance is sporadic during the winter months, due to weather and illness.

WORSHIP NEWS

The congregation voted, by a 2 to 1 majority, to return to using the traditional Lord's Prayer. The Worship Committee thanks all those who voted and/or made thoughtful comments. In reading over these comments, it was discovered that there are some misconceptions about the Lord's Prayer, and this gives an opportunity to explain a little about the history and traditions associated with this much-loved prayer.

Our church historian, Dick Behrens, has been researching the prayer, and has written an article which may be found in this issue of the newsletter. We hope that you will take a moment to read it and learn something that will make the Lord's Prayer even more meaningful to you.

Last June, we began to have members and friends participate in the Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession. We do this on the last Sunday of the month, and call it "Prayers of the People." Three people each take a portion of the prayer (Thanksgiving, Intercession for local people and concerns, or Intercession for the wider world.) We currently have a list of people who have volunteered to do this. They either write their own 4-5 sentence portion of the prayer, or find one that is appropriate for the portion they are going to do. It would be wonderful if others in the congregation felt as though they would like to do this as well. Please see Duffy Whitehouse if you would like to volunteer. Duffy Whitehouse, Worship Chr.

WEATHER AND HEAT IN WINTER

Please remember that the temperature in the sanctuary on Sunday mornings may not be what you are used to at home. It is a good idea to wear an extra layer and boots when you come to worship. It is warmer in the front, too, as the opening and closing of the doors does not affect the temperature as much as in the back. On stormy Sundays, there will still be a worship service. Please come, only if you feel safe doing so.

HYMNS OF OUR FAITH

"Sing to the Lord, you saints of his; praise his holy name." (Psalm 30: 4)

"Jesus, Thou Joy of Loving Hearts"

"Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts, thou fount of life, thou joy of all,

From the best bliss that earth imparts, we turn unfilled to heed thy call."

The words of this hymn are attributed to Bernard of Clairveaux, and are excerpted from one of the many poems which he wrote. In 1858, the original Latin text was translated into English by Dr. Ray Palmer, a Congregational minister from Albany, NY.

Bernard of Clairveux lived during the 12th century. "A nobleman by birth, (he) gave up his life of luxury to become a monk. Having tasted 'the bliss that earth imparts' he knew that he was 'unfilled and turned to Jesus instead.'"

As we close out the season of Epiphany we see an element of the season included in Bernard's first verse where Jesus is referred to as "thou light of all". In the following four stanzas of the hymn we have enumerated other attributes ascribed to Jesus, the "joy of loving hearts", "truth unchanged", the "fountainhead", and "living bread".

While reading, or singing the text, we come to realize that it is a prayer of praise celebrating the gifts that life centered in Jesus affords -goodness, joy, filling of our souls, love, and peace.

As we anticipate the coming of the Lenten season-a time of soul-searching, contemplation, and sacrifice, we might well think upon the example set by Bernard of Clairveaux. He found the greatest riches, not in the comfort of wealth and earthly pleasures, but rather in the things of God and service to others.

"O Jesus, ever with us stay, make all our moments calm and bright;

Chase the dark night of sin away, shed o'er the world thy holy light."

Dick Behrens

DRILLING FOR HOPE

The Mission for the first quarter (January-March) is Drilling for Hope, which was started in 2005 by Karen Flewelling. Since Karen pays for her own travel, lodging and food expenses, 100% of donations go to people and well drilling endeavors. Through the generosity of donors, Drilling for Hope provides water wells and farm animals to communities around the world in need of clean water. Food, medicine and school supplies are also donated, along with the sponsoring of children who would otherwise not receive an education. For those interested, more information can be found at drillingforhope.org. Donation coin boxes are available on the back table, and will be due back March 31.

CONSISTORY OFFICERS

At its first consistory meeting (Jan. 22) of the year, our new members were welcomed: Deacons Oscar Everts and Bridget Critelli, and Elder Susanna Combs. Elections for consistory officers resulted in the following: Vice President: Paula Sheely; Clerk: Paula Sheely; Financial Secretary: Bridget Critelli; Classis Delegate: Susanna Combs.

The Consistory worked on the Annual Consistorial Report, which goes to the classis and denomination, reporting on our ministries for the past year, our current challenges and goals for the future. Members also helped complete a mid-way evaluation of the Albany Synod Fellowship Program. Pastor Jenn reported on the retreat she will be leading on Sat. March 9 for the consistories of the Turning Point Reformed Churches (Old Saratoga, Fort Miller and Bacon Hill.)

Thanks to outgoing consistory members Elder Paulette Foote, and Deacons Bruce Guerineau and Cindy Brockman, both of whom completed three two year terms on consistory.

4 TUESDAYS IN LENT BEGINS 3/12

(first Tuesday after Ash Wednesday)

This will be the 6th annual Lenten program, exploring the lives of Christians who have left an indelible mark upon the world by their love and commitment to Christ. We have so far looked at the lives of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Thomas Merton, Dorothy Day, Corrie Ten Boom and Bishop Desmond Tutu. This year our program will focus on the life of Bishop Oscar Romero of El Salvador.

The DVD story of his life, "Monsenor: The Last Journey of Oscar Romero" will provide information, reflection and inspiration about this amazing servant of God, and how his life and faith challenges us to be faithful followers in our time!

Please mark your calendars, starting on Tuesday, March 12. 4 Tuesdays in Lent meets in Loomis Hall from 12-1pm. Participants bring their own bag lunch. Beverages, fruit and cookies are provided. This is an ecumenical Lenten program open to all the community. Please invite your neighbors and friends!

THE LORD'S PRAYER

"The Lord's Prayer is always in danger of becoming a vain repetition...(people) need to be reminded of what they are doing when they pray the greatest of all prayers...and think a little more when they take the words upon their lips." These words were written by William Barclay, Professor of Divinity and Biblical Criticism at Glasgow University, as an introduction to a treatise on the Lord's Prayer. With Barclay's admonishment in mind, it is good for us to learn more about the origin of the Lord's Prayer, about variations of the prayer within the King James version of the Bible, about the various translations of the Bible that have been made over the 2000 years since the origin of the prayer, and about some of the commentaries of preachers and theologians over time, so that we more fully understand its meaning.

The gospel writer Matthew tells of Jesus instructing the disciples (Matthew 6: 7-8) "And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. This then is how you should pray:

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

This, the familiar version of the Lord's Prayer, is found in Matthew 6:9-13. It is the language of the King James Bible translated from the Greek in 1611. The KJV is the 3rd translation into English, having been preceded by the "Great Bible" (1538) and the "Bishop's Bible" (1568) The King James translation was begun in 1602 with the Bishop's Bible authorized the basis.

The Lord's Prayer is also found in Luke 11:2-4, but translated a little differently. Luke indicates that the teaching of the prayer was in response to a request from an unidentified disciple: "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples" "He (Jesus) said, "When you pray, say:

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. Give us day by day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil."

Matthew might have been a witness to this, having been a disciple, but Luke, a disciple of Paul is less likely, since he was a historian with many sources used as a basis for his writing. When we consider the many translations and multiple languages as sources of the Bible text, we can't be certain that the King James Bible is a direct, verbatim translation of Jesus' words.

If we agree that meaning is of greater significance than the words themselves, than we are able to understand what theologians over time have indicated, as Barclay states, "But what Jesus was doing was giving them (the disciples) a pattern of prayer far more than a form of words which they were to do no more than repeat, like children reciting a lesson." With such an understanding there is fertile ground to examine various forms and translations of the Lord's Prayer so that its meaning can enrich our fellowship with our Lord and with each other.

Over the next seven, or so, editions of Jacob's Well, we will explore the Lord's Prayer, section by section. We will consider the writing of a variety of theologians on the prayer, in the hope of being enlightened.

CINDY BROCKMAN "RETIRES"

Cindy (and Jim) Brockman joined OSRC in Oct. 2003, and not long after that, Cindy volunteered her time as Fellowship Committee Chair for the church. During that approximately 15 year time period, she has helped to plan countless church suppers, our popular (and well-attended!) Palm Sunday Breakfast, many bereavement gatherings and special receptions. She has announced that she is "retiring" from that responsibility, which she did at the end of 2018. We can't thank her enough for all that she's done!

(Even though Cindy has "retired" she has offered to chair our annual lasagna dinner.)

SECOND HAND ROSE THRIFT SHOP NEWS

The Second Hand Rose Thrift Shop, Inc. is in its 16th year of operation. The thrift shop was started by Peggy MacMillan at Old Saratoga Reformed Church, but grew so quickly that it moved to Broad St. in Schuylerville, and became a 501(c)3 non-profit organization in Dec. 2003. Charlotte Morrill has been faithfully serving the past 15 years as Manager. She and the volunteers who help at the shop enjoyed the annual Appreciation Dinner on Jan. 7 at the Golden Corral in Saratoga. The current volunteers include Terri Richards, Donna Fort, Yvonne Wooley, Jean Wrisley, Pam Seward, Theresa Fontaine, Gina Smith, Betty LaCroix, Donald Morrill, David deVelder and Mikael deVelder.

(After operational expenses, all proceeds from the shop are given away each year.)

The current Board of Directors includes the following: Rev. Joyce deVelder, Pres., Marie Foster, Vice Pres., Ruthie Drumm, Clerk, Peggy MacMillan, Treas., and Pat Hernandez, Facebook.
